

Achievement of Excellence in Procurement®

Membership Application

The National Purchasing Institute, the public sector affiliate of ISM, exists to promote the achievement of excellence in governmental and institutional procurement through education, certification, professional development and networking of its membership.

Membership in the National Purchasing Institute (NPI) is open to any person interested in the supply management field directly related to government, education, healthcare and institutional agencies provided that such person(s) cannot be primarily engaged in sales activity; nor solicits business on behalf of such person of his or her employer during meetings of any NPI activity.

Regular Membership – Regular membership is open to any person meeting the above requirements. Regular membership in this category includes membership in the Institute for Supply Management \(ISM\).

Dual Membership – Dual membership consists of individuals who are qualified for regular voting membership, as defined above, and who are members of other ISM affiliates whose national ISM dues are paid through other such affiliate membership. Dual members have full rights and privileges of NPI regular membership and their NPI dues shall be set lower to reflect the fact that their dues to ISM are paid in another affiliate.

Associate Membership - Associate membership consists of individuals who are otherwise qualified for membership. Associate membership does not include membership with ISM. Associate members may vote on NPI matters requiring membership vote.

Student Membership – Student members are nonvoting, dues-free members of NPI and are considered as a separate membership class for reporting purposes. Student members may be regular or dual members of NPI.

Retired Membership – Any regular member whose dues are currently paid on a continuous basis who retires shall continue to be eligible for membership. Retiree membership dues will be half of the current NPI rate.
